SOME THINGS TO KEEP IN MIND

Since the dormitories are not air-conditioned, I recommend that you bring a portable fan. Blankets, sheets, pillows, pillowcases, and towels ARE NOT provided. Please bring at least one set per week (Linens (single extra-long) and towels, a favorite pillow, and a blanket). I suggest you also pack a few hangers. Some rooms may not have lots of available closet space but will have plenty of drawers. The rooms have overhead lighting, so you may wish to have a reading lamp, flashlight, or night-light.

WHAT TO BRING: Comfortable clothing is the dress for YPI. Bring shorts, jeans, favorite T-shirts, sneakers, comfortable shoes, bathing suits, a sweater, a jacket, and rainwear. Include enough clothing for seven days. There are laundry facilities in the dormitories. Counselors will assist younger students with laundry, if necessary. Bring enough toiletries, soap, toothpaste, etc., to last your stay. On Wednesday evenings, YPI holds an informal dance. Feel free to bring your fun dancing clothes. If you are in the Photography workshops, you will need a DSLR camera or if you want to use the darkroom, we can provide a manual camera. Musicians, please feel free to bring any instruments. Writers can bring their own laptops.

SPENDING MONEY: Suffield Academy has a school store with limited hours for students to purchase souvenirs and other supplies. The local pizza shop & Chinese restaurant deliver, however, students may only order at designated times. Parents may wish to provide students with a limited amount of money for their stay. I will be happy to supervise or hold any money parents wish to provide for their children. Quarters are used for the laundry room and vending. If you need change, small bills help.

MEDICAL CARE: YPI will provide medical services for the young people while they are with us at camp. A trained medical professional will be on call 24 hours a day. To help us provide the best care, please fully complete the enclosed medical forms, and make sure they are with us before camp begins.

PLEASE NOTE: Neither the YPI, Inc nor the Suffield Academy will assume responsibility for damage to, nor loss of personal property brought to YPI by students. YPI reserves the right to use photographs and student work for advertising purposes. If you do not wish YPI to use photos or student work, please request in writing that your sons/ daughter's photographs, writing or artwork may not be used.
